* I write this note to briefly explain why I have reduced the requested compensation. The post-confirmation work consisted primarily of two motions to modify the confirmed plan. My review of the time records suggested that the time spent on these matters was excessive. There are a number of time entries showing a substantial amount of time spent for unexplained e-mail correspondence. Also, some time was spent correcting errors in the proposed amended plans pointed out by the trustee. Viewing the case holistically, I conclude that a reasonable fee for the post-confirmation services is the $1,500.00 being allowed.
